Your application for work study will be reviewed based on the following criteria: skill set and ability to perform the work, financial need, past participation in programs/readiness for the subject matter, intent/interest in sharing information on the Enneagram, and work study history.

Please address your qualifications under each of the five review criteria below in 100 words or less.

1. Please describe your skill set that meets or addresses the skills required for the particular work study opportunity for which you are applying. Explain your ability to do the work.

2. Explain your financial need that qualifies for work study. (Financial statements are not necessary, but a general indication of your income and savings is appropriate.)

3. Past participation in Enneagram programs/readiness for subject matter.

4. Intent/interest in sharing information about the Enneagram.

5. Work study history. Please list any work study or scholarship support received for an Enneagram program hosted by AEA.
